STATE EDITORS ARE CELEBRATING

Muskogee, Okla., May 24.—The Oklahoma Press Association opened its twenty-first annual session here today with over 300 editors from all parts of the state in attendance.

The association, for the first time in its history is on a good financial footing, the secretary's report showing money in the treasury. Over fifty new members were taken in today.

This afternoon a cost congress was held and the cost of production gone into. E. M. Kerr, publisher of the Muskogee Times Democrat, conducted the congress.

The plan to establish an editor's home at Medicine Park, Ok., where the association owns a fine site, was worked out on definite lines today when the editors agreed to give space to their papers to be sold to Eastern advertisers, and then only to be used in building a modern home. $7,500 in paper and money was raised. This is not to be a home for broken-down newspaper men, but a recuperation spot where the editor can take his family on a vacation at a small cost.

After the business session, the visitors were taken for a trip over the city in automobiles, and then to the suburban home of Postmistress Alice Robertson, where the latter served luncheon and buttermilk.

Tonight at the Elks' home the visitors were entertained with a reception and ball by the Muskogee Press Club. Among the prominent editors attending is former Governor Tom Ferguson of Watonga, Ok. The attendance is the greatest ever known at a state meeting.

GALVESTON CAUSEWAY DEDICATED TODAY

Galveston, Tex., May 25.—The Galveston Causeway, said to be the greatest engineering achievement of its kind in America, was formally dedicated and opened to traffic today. The opening was made the occasion for a public celebration in which delegations from many Texas cities participated.

The completion of the causeway marks the culmination of the extensive improvements projected by the city of Galveston after the disastrous storm and flood which laid a large part of the city in ruins in 1900. The causeway connects Galveston Island and the mainland. The structure is 10,642 feet long, including 2,472 feet of reinforced concrete arch bridge work, a 100-foot lift bridge, 4,530 feet of causeway on the island and 3,640 feet on the mainland. The structure is 66 feet wide and provides for railroad and interurban tracks and roadways for vehicles and foot passengers. There are twenty-eight arches in the bridge, in four series of seven arches each. The causeway has been three years in building and cost $1,500,000.

Bank Burglars Get $15,000.

Guthrie, Ok., May 24.—Advices from Carney, Ok., say robbers entered the Bank of Carney early today and escaped with booty amounting to about $15,000 secured by blowing the safe.

To Lovers of Music.

On Sunday, the 26th inst., I will conduct a singing at the Baptist church in North Ada. All lovers of music are invited to attend and the promise is made that they will be well entertained. Everybody come. It is free for all. J. H. LOWRY.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C. May 25.—The coming week will see the beginning of the end of the contests for the presidential nominations, so far as the election of delegates to the national conventions is concerned. Interest will center chiefly in the presidential preference primaries to be held in New Jersey Tuesday. The contest between Taft and Roosevelt is similar to the contests already fought out in Massachusetts and Maryland, the other two eastern states in which general primaries have been held, and it is the general belief that the victor in New Jersey will win by a narrow margin. On the democratic side it is a fight by Governor Woodrow Wilson to secure the solid indorsement of his home state against the strenuous efforts of his opponents to split the delegation.

Kentucky's delegates to the democratic national convention will be chosen in Louisville Wednesday. The state convention, which will name the four delegates at large, will be preceded in the forenoon by the conventions of the eleven congressional districts. Speaker Clark is believed to have a good lead among the democrats of the Blue Grass State and the only question appears to be whether the delegates shall be instructed for him or shall go to Baltimore without instructions.

Other events on the political calendar for the week will include the Democratic presidential preference primaries in Rhode Island, the democratic state convention at Butte to name Montana's eight delegates to Baltimore, the democratic and republican state conventions in Texas to ratify the results of the recent primaries, and the Arizona Republican convention to select six delegates to Chicago.

The annual convention of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis which will meet in Washington, and the fourth annual conference on city planning, in Boston, will be among the notable gatherings of the week. Meetings abroad of interest on this side of the Atlantic will be eighteenth International Congress of Americanists, which will assemble in London Monday, and the meeting in Milan of the first international technical congress for the prevention of accidents and injury to laborers and for industrial hygiene. The United States will be represented at both gatherings.

The German squadron, consisting of the flagship Moltke and the cruisers Stettin and Bremen, is due to arrive off Capt Henry Thursday. The vessels will remain off the capes until the following Monday, when they will enter Hampton Roads.

The case of Henry W. A. Page, the New York merchant indicted for criminally libeling Chairman Clayton and the members of the House Judiciary Committee, is set for trial Monday in the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

The second annual 500-mile international sweepstake race, the biggest event of the year in the field of automobile racing, will be decided Thursday over the Indianapolis motor speedway, with prizes which total $50,000. The entries include twenty-seven speedy racing cars, which will be manned by an equal number of famous racing pilots.

Also of interest to followers of sports and athletics will be the annual Eastern intercollegiate athletic championships, to be decided Saturday at the University of Pennsylvania, and the Western championships, which will take place the same day at Purdue University.

AIKEN BILL FIGHT TAKES LOCAL TURN

J. F. McKeel returned last night from Oklahoma City, where he had been attending the hearing of the Aiken bill controversy. Mr. McKeel said that it appeared on the face of the matter that the fight to defeat the bill is already won, as there are many discrepancies and much crookedness showing up in the petitions.

Some local color is being injected into the hearing by the fact that the name of a prominent Pontotoc county man who is known to be an open and avowed enemy of Aiken's proposition, heads one of the petitions.

The friends of the state school feel greatly helped up over the bright prospects for the defeat of Aiken's hobby.

Statement by O. E. Lancaster.

Some people are of the opinion that should I be elected mayor of the city of Ada, that bootleggers, jointists and gamblers will flourish under my administration. Now, those that are laboring under any such impression are badly mistaken.

In the first place, should I be in favor of such—which I am not—it is beyond the powers of any one man. And as the prohibition law in effect here is a state law, I believe, in the main part, it should be left up to the state and county officials to enforce such.

All I want is to see our little city thrive. I am in favor of harmless amusements, such as baseball at all times, because, in my opinion it is one of the most harmless amusements of the present day that we can indulge in. And again, one of the best advertisements a town can have is a live ball team and a busy diamond.

Hoping I have made my position on this matter plain, should I be elected, I beg to remain yours to serve,

O. E. LANCASTER.

Elks 24; Travelers 17.

Twenty-four to seventeen in brief tells the story of yesterday's great game. It was one great feature from start to finish. For three hours and fifteen minutes the contest raged fiercely, first one side then the other on top. Every player featured. W. K. Chaney, Elk, who was formerly a great town ball star, rapped out a homer for the Elks. Not caring to be out done by their opponents McShafferty followed suit. The Travelers had a decided lead over the Elks until the 5th inning when they began to find "where they were at." From then until the end of the game they gained steadily over their opponents. Two stenographers, one with typewriter the other with a Bourroughs adding machine assisted the official score keeper. Below is a partial summary.

Score by innings:
Elks 2 0 2 1 3 5 2 4—24
Travelers 7 0 4 2 0 3 0 1—17

Errors—Too numerous to record.
Batteries—For Elks: Stuart, Alderson and Davidson; Travelers: McShafferty, Ferrie, Brown and Scott.

Home runs, McShafferty, Chaney. 3-base hits, Thompson, Alderson, Maddox. 2-base hits, Bobbitt, Davidson 2. Henderson, Glenn, Brooks, Greer, Singles, everybody.

Time of game three hours and fifteen minutes.
Attendance 500.
Umpires Warren and Little.

Postmaster Lock has received instructions from the department and will be ready to receive deposits in the sum of one dollar or any multiple of that amount June 1. All accounts running one year draw two per cent interest.—Allen Hustler.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE EAST CENTRAL STATE NORMAL

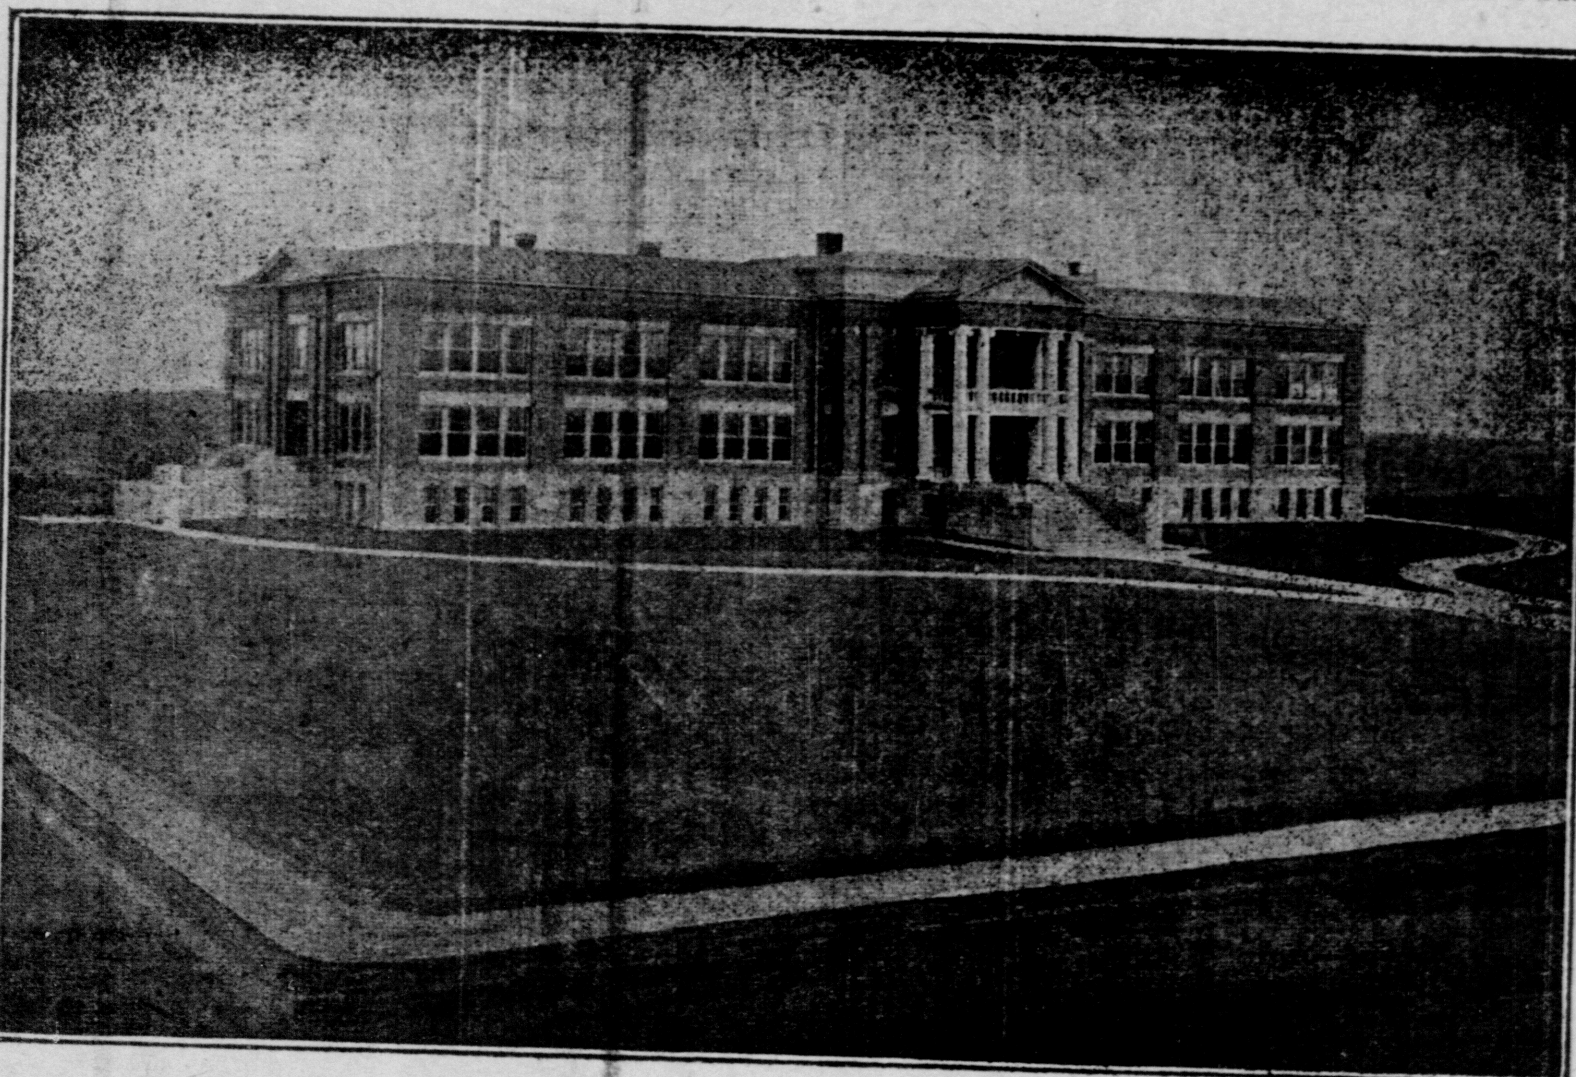

ELABORATE EXERCISES AND RECEPTIONS MARK THE CLOSE OF A VERY SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR

Rev. Chas. L. Brooks, pastor of the First Methodist church, preached the baccalaureate sermon in the Normal Auditorium Sunday evening at 8:30 to a large audience. He took for his text the first clause of the 46th verse of the 26 chapter of Matthew, "Rise, let us be going," which he said was not intended for exposition but a hook upon which to hang his remarks. He first pointed out the restlessness of the present age as evidenced by the discoveries in science, the extension of civilization, the struggles for the mastery in politics and the opening up of new avenue of commerce, all crucifixion and death rather than betray God's trust. Our country calls, the church calls, God and the generations unborn call you to lives of usefulness, purity and nobility."

One of the events of commencement week was the Junior-Senior party Tuesday evening, May 21st. The reception hall was decorated in lavender and white, the senior colors, penants and white roses, the class flower. The guests were received by Misses Bernice Hodge and Mr. Clyde Jones. They were conducted to the punch bowl which was presided over by Miss Bonnie Mitchell and Mr. A. T. Watson. Some of the features of the evening were the auctioning off of pictures by mer time," when called on, but a few were too timid and too modest to discussion, "progressive nonsense" was the order of the hour, after which scraps of cards were passed around and the holders ordered to find their partners by matching the scraps. When this was done it was found that the complete cards bore the names of familiar songs, and each couple was supposed to give an exhibition of their vocal ability by singing a verse or two from the song they held. Prof. Fentem preferred to sing the houn' dawg song in place of the one he held, and was permitted to do so, ably assisted by Miss Knight, Prof. Briles and Miss Clarke came across handsomely with the "Good Old Sum-of which has brought about a dissatisfaction for the "old paths" and created a struggle for the "survival of the fittest." In the face of this no man can succeed who is not prepared. In that preparation must be included an unselfish purpose, an accurate understanding of one's capacity for service and a manhood built upon and backed by a sound faith in Almighty God. He pointed out the present need of men of this character in our legislative halls, in the business world, in every profession, and pointed out to the graduates that if they did not reach out for the positions at the top others less prepared would and the world would suffer as a consequence. He showed the opportunities for service, the meaning of life, the price of success, and asserted that only those who see the reality of life and their part in it and have the grit to do it deserve and will have a permanent place in the hearts of mankind. He compared the lives of Ingels and Longfellow, and showed how one was a curse and the other a blessing to the world. As an ideal he held up the life of Jesus Christ in its incomparable grandeur, and as a final word said: "I exhort you in the language of my Lord and Master, 'Rise, let us be going'—going to solve the problems and surmount the difficulties of human life—going to live as God designed we should live—going on to

Mr. Lilly, the junior class sponsor. Initial contest, historical contest and a mock banquet in which water and crackers, toothpicks, hollow nuts containing fortunes were served. The following after dinner speeches were made: "Our Husbands," Miss Nannie Henderson, "Our Proposals," Mr. Bray, "Our Lovess," Miss Muriel Wright, "My First Business Adventure," Miss Kate McKeown, "Our First Sweethearts," Mrs. Bray, "The New Woman," Mr. Ray Palmer, "My First Engagement," Mr. Wm. Buttram.

President Briles gave a few minutes talk on "Our Girls." Mr. Lilly followed with "The Class of 1912." Mesdames Briles and Lilly talked a few minutes.

Refreshments were served during which several favored the crowd with music after which the happy party dispersed.

Wednesday evening the senior class of the normal entertained the faculty and a number of invited guests, and took the opportunity to even up some old scores by organizing classes in which most of the faculty were assigned to the primary grade when they showed their lack of study in not being able to answer some pointed questions when they attempted to pass to the first class.

The evening began with the enrollment of the guests, in which each was supposed to give an account of himself. After the classes were enrolled and each had showed his knowledge or ignorance of the subjects under show what they could do if they really tried.

The last feature was marked "recess" on the program, and it was a recess to be remembered, for the most delicious ice cream, strawberries and cake imaginable were passed around. Next came "commencement" which in this instance meant time to commence going home, and it was with genuine regret that the pleased guests did so.

Those present were: Mrs. E. N. Wright of Olney, Ok., Mr. Everett Wilson of Tishomingo, Mrs. McCall of Blanchard, Mr. Presnell Sugg, Mr. John McShafferty, Pres. and Mrs. Chas. W. Briles, Mr. and Mrs. Fentem, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Perkins, Miss Kate Knight, Miss Josephine Clark, Miss Helen Turner, Mr. W. L. Little, Mr. W. H. Cox.

The senior class is composed of Ray H. Palmer, president; Miss Nannie H. Henderson, secretary; Mrs. Effie Bray, Wm. A. Buttram, Miss Muriel H. Wright, Miss Kate N. McKeown and A. C. Bray. The class certainly did itself proud as an entertainment committee. The reception room was decorated with a combination of the school colors and those of the class, lavender and white. The general effect was improved by numerous pot plants from the various rooms of the Normal, where they were raised this year.

Baccalaureate Address.
Dr. Murdaugh, president of the Southeastern State normal at Durant, delivered the baccalaureate address in the normal auditorium last night. His theme was educational; in truth a history of the teaching profession from its birth to the present. He told what one must be to be a successful teacher, the methods that should be used. He stated that just as any workman should know the material with which he works, so should the teacher know the child. For these reasons a careful study is made of the child and the modern schools are so adjusted as to fit the need of the child.

Dr. Murdaugh presented a great many statistics in his address to show the advance of the teaching profession. He also pointed out the faults of the present system and showed means by which they could be remedied.

President Briles then presented to the seniors their diplomas.

One of the most delightful treats of the evening was the music furnished by the pupils of the music department under the direction of Miss Baker.

Jones, our friend and former fellow-townsmen, lived in this county for many years, prior to his removal to Oklahoma several years ago, and always bore an unsullied reputation for honesty and fair-dealing. For many years he was one of the leading merchants of the county, and for eight years held the office of county clerk, retiring with a record never surpassed in the county, for honesty and efficiency. We take pleasure in commending him to the people of his new home, as a man worthy of all confidence and capable of rendering valuable public service in any position of trust to which he may aspire.

G. W. PEARSON HURT WHILE OUT HUNTING.

Mr. G. W. Pearson, an old and respected citizen of Ada, is lying at the City hall in an almost helpless condition as the result of a wound he received last Monday.

Mr. Pearson was out squirrel hunting north of town near Colbert school house. Starting home about 1 o'clock he became very warm and drank too much water which made him sick. After talking to friends whom he passed along the road, Mr. Pearson resumed his walk home. He was seized with sickness and dizziness and fell against a large stump by the road side, the heavy jar knocking him unconscious. He was brought to town by a friend and has laid in his room at the city hall ever since. He is suffering greatly and is under the care of a physician and G. W. Morton.

Mr. Pearson has been in this country 18 years and has many friends who will regret to hear of his misfortune.

OSLER RIGHT: YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age. Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race. One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't look old before your time. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what an improvement it will make in the appearance of your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle. Special Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

The usual symptoms of Scrofula are enlarged glands of the neck, sores and ulcers on the body, skin affections, catarrhal troubles, weak eyes, and general poor health. The inherited poison, transmitted through the blood, pollutes and weakens the fluid, and in place of its nutritive qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter, which saps the vitality of the entire system. Thousands of children, born with a scrofulous taint, have spent their childhood handicapped by ill health and stunted growth, manhood or womanhood developed. S. S. S., and perhaps later some disease of the bones or joints developed. S. S. S., given in their early life, would have prevented this. It would have cleansed and purified the blood of the taint, nourished and strengthened their systems, and assisted each to grow into strong, healthful manhood or womanhood. S. S. S. is the very best remedy for Scrofula. It goes down to the bottom of the trouble, and cleanses the circulation of all scrofulous matter. It supplies the weak, diseased blood with strength and health-building qualities, and under the purifying effects of this great remedy all symptoms of Scrofula pass away. S. S. S. contains no minerals in any form, and is an absolutely safe treatment for children, even infants, or persons of any age. Literature about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

ARTICLE WRITTEN

BY JOHN H. JONES

To the Citizens of Ada:

Owing to the fact that since I became a candidate for the office of Commissioner of Finance against Mr. Timberlake, several degrading charges have been circulated concerning me. I deem it a duty that I owe, not only to my friends who are supporting me in my race for office, but also a duty that I owe to my wife and children. I feel like if I made no public denial of such charges some one in the future might claim that I permitted such things to go unnoticed. I have not the time to see all the citizens of Ada personally to make denial of such charges and therefore hereby seek to reach them through the press.

The report has been circulated that I was a drunkard; that I was a bootlegger; that I did not have sufficient nerve to fill the office; that I was incompetent; that I was not a property holder and that I did not have a good reputation before coming here.

Now citizens of Ada, I wish to state that I have resided in your city over four years. I did not come here because I was dissatisfied with Texas or Texas people, but on account of the health of my family, and at the suggestion of my family physician. I bought me a home in Ada and lived on same for two years. My wife's health being greatly improved, she wanted to move back to Texas. At her request I conditionally sold my place. I was not willing to move back to Texas until my wife visited there, and ascertained how her health would be, therefore my household furniture remained here, and she visited Texas. She was taken sick and remained so until spring, not being able to make the trip back to Ada. As soon as she was sufficiently restored we came back with a view of this being our permanent home. The party to whom I sold my place and to whom I have given no deed, abandoned same and I again became the possessor of it. I owed a balance on the place which was secured by mortgage lien. Having a chance to sell the place I did so, the grantee making me a cash payment and assuming the indebtedness. This will prove that I was the actual owner of real estate for the first three years I was here, and in connection therewith I will state that I paid the taxes each year, as will be shown by treasurer's books. I think, however, the last year said property was rendered in name of party to whom I had contracted same, still I paid the taxes. I am now in a rented house, but have received notice from treasurer that I am due some taxes on household property for the past year. This evidently answers one of above charges. As to my being a drunkard I have this to say. I did not hear of such thing until I became a candidate for office, such charge is an infamous falsehood, and emanated from the lips of some false slanderer, who is destitute of both principle and truthfulness. I claim the same to be the case as regards the bootlegging charge. A more infamous lie was never told by any one. I do not know what is meant by my not having nerve. My answer to that is that if elected I will fill the office without consulting the gentleman who knows so much about my nerve. As to my incompetency I will state that I have not been examined by any board or committee since I came to Ada, therefore, can not see how any one can know. However, in this connection I will state that if elected the "Doubting Thomases" can appoint a committee of good and intelligent men to thoroughly examine the records of the office, and if they report me incompetent I will quit the office without a recall. As to my reputation in Texas I refer to the recommendation sent me by officials in Texas, published elsewhere in this paper.

Before closing this article I will add that I accumulated a good deal of property while in Texas, not by inheritance, gift, or chance, but by hard labor. I entered the mercantile business, when, for several years, I was successful, but being unable to give my personal attention to the business in later years and having to trust employees, I lost heavily.

This article is not written to secure votes but to vindicate myself against the false accusations above set out. I feel like it is a duty I owe my wife, whose nobility of character and purity of soul, demand a denial from me, and to my three boys, whose reputation for honesty, good behavior and other noble traits, stand unquestioned, and to my friends, who are standing by me in this campaign regardless of the untruthful and slanderous charges that are now being circulated. Respectfully submitted,

JNO. H. JONES.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys, or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment, which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles."

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands.

Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.
